

O “Mar” Salgado

The Algarve is known for its lovely beaches and, almost endless, hours of sunshine. What many are unaware of is that, as in the Dead Sea in Israel, in the Algarve you can also enjoy an ultra-salty bath, where you can read a book, while you float effortlessly in the saline. If the experience alone is already appealing, it becomes irresistible when we know that these waters also have therapeutic benefits, such as relaxing muscles, reducing stress, activating blood circulation and decreasing muscle pain.

Always attentive to what is best for our guests, we at Hotel Faro have decided to provide them with this extraordinary experience.

Do not waste time!
